

Gaul are a collection of self-confessed nerds, ex-layabouts and avid music appreciators. Some of us have wound up as teachers, computer game designers and developers.

The major thing that unites us, however is the thunderous and ear-pounding heavy riff, which such bands as Melvins, Kyuss, Fu Manchu and Clutch have used to great effect.

An initial batch of songs has set us off on achieving this and can be now found in the form of our first demo, which is aptly named, First Demo. It was recorded in our practice room with a minimal knowledge, a Mac, a few carefully placed microphones and a lot of resolve and dedication.

Gaul are:

Chris Whitehouse - vocals
Danmy Hughes - drums
Paul Wild - bass
Gary Evans - guitar
Nathan Mallon - guitar
